

MONUMENTAL CHURCH (TWELFTH AND BROAD STREETS), RICHMOND, VA.

MONUMENTAL CHURCH—Erected on the site of the Richmond Theatre in commemoration of the appalling disaster which occurred the night of December 26th, 1811 when the theatre was totally destroyed by fire and 72 persons, including the Governor of Virginia (Geo. W. Smith), perished in the flames.

104195

POST CARD

PLACE
STAMP HERE

DOMESTIC ONE CENT

FOREIGN TWO CENTS

THIS SPACE FOR ADDRESS ONLY

TICHNOR
QUALITY
VIEWS

